For the goldsmith knows, in each delicate part,

Lies the essence of craftsmanship, a work of heart,

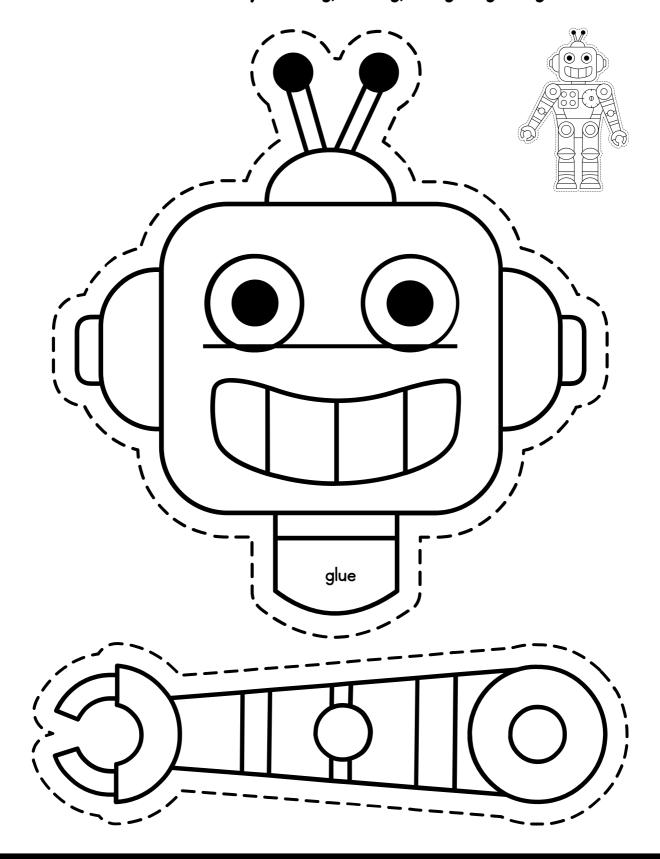

A present that echoes, both future and past,

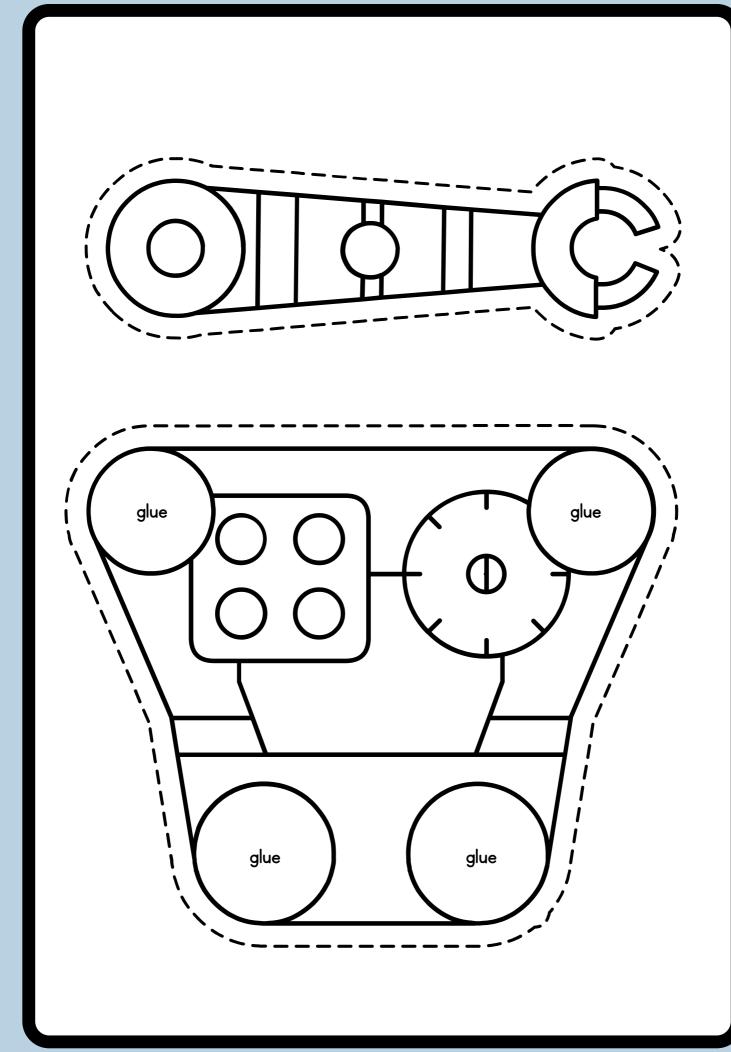

A treasure to cherish, destined to last.

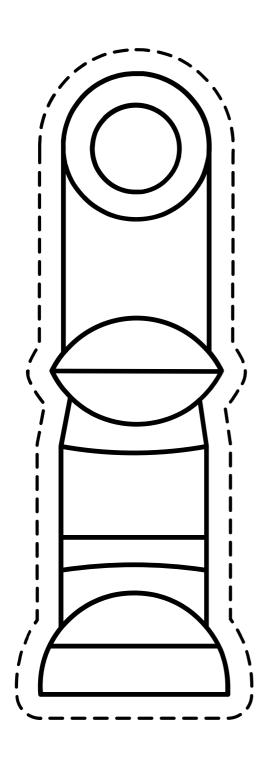

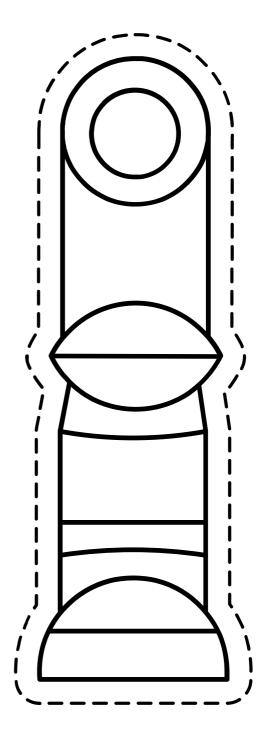

BUILD A ROBOT

Assemble the robot by coloring, cutting, and gluing it together.

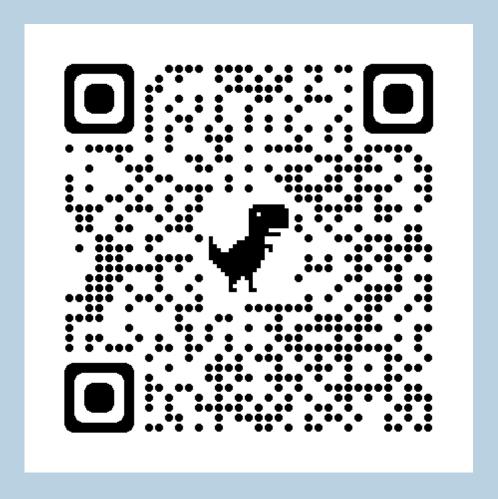

ROBOT NOTE

Handmade jewelry often reflects superior craftsmanship. Local goldsmiths take pride in their work, paying attention to detail and using high-quality materials, ensuring the jewelry's durability and beauty. Buying from local artisans supports the local economy and allows you to connect more closely with the creator of the piece. It can also contribute to preserving traditional craftsmanship.
